If the corporation has members with voting rights and they unanimously approved the amendment to change the corporation's name, mark the first box in number 3. Important: If the corporation has members with voting rights and their approval of the name change amendment was less than unanimous, you may not use this form. Instead, follow guideform SCC888. See Note below.

If the corporation has no members or no members with voting rights, and at least two-thirds of all of the directors in office approved the amendment to change the corporation's name, mark the second box in number 3 and mark the appropriate box to indicate that there are no members or no members with voting rights.

The articles must be executed in the name of the corporation by the chairman or any vice-chairman of the board of directors, the president or any other of its officers authorized to act on behalf of the corporation. The printed name and corporate title of the authorized representative who signs the articles on behalf of the corporation must be set forth. Set forth the date the articles of amendment were signed.

It is a Class 1 misdemeanor for any person to sign a document he or she knows is false in any material respect with intent that the document be delivered to the Commission for filing. See § 13.1-811 of the Code of Virginia.

NOTE

Other methods of adopting an amendment to the articles of incorporation of a nonstock corporation are (i) by approval of each voting group of members by more than two-thirds of all votes cast on the amendment by that voting group at a meeting at which a quorum exists, unless the board of directors, as a condition of its submission of the amendment to the members, requires a greater vote or the articles of incorporation provide for a greater or lesser vote, and (ii) by action of a majority of the incorporators, when director and member approval is not required. See § 13.1-888 of the Code of Virginia. See (and follow) guideform SCC888 for adoption provisions that accommodate these situations. It may be downloaded from our website at https://scc.virginia.gov/pages/Virginia-Nonstock-Corporations.
